

Woofstock 2012

April 14, 2012 ~ 10am-4pm
Castine Center ~ Mandeville, La.

The St. Tammany Humane Society is Louisiana's largest not for profit, no-kill animal welfare organization and shelter. Since 1953, the St. Tammany Humane Society has been serving the unwanted, neglected, abandoned, and abused animals of the gulf coast region. The STHS is an independent, non-governmental shelter that offers veterinary care, fostering, and adoption services. We rely solely on the support of caring people like you to fund programs and services that profoundly benefit the animals of our community.

Our 23rd annual Woofstock fundraising event will be held on Saturday, April 14 from 10am-4pm at the Castine Center, Mandeville. Woofstock is our largest fundraiser of the year, over 3500 people are expected to attend. Your contribution to this event will help to change the lives of hundreds of animals in our parish providing them food, shelter, veterinary services, and potentially a great home. Please consider being a sponsor and help in giving these animals a new leash on life, and come enjoy the best thing since Woodstock!

Food/Drink sponsorship includes:

- 10' x 10' booth including an 8-ft. table and 2 chairs.
- advertising on all Woofstock materials- T-shirts, flyers, posters, website, Facebook etc.
- Opportunity to promote business the day of the festival.
- Sponsors will also receive a banner ad adorning our adoption mobile, visible in the community for weekly off-site pet adoptions, local festivals and area events for one full year.
